

A Marriage Minute™

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

MARRIAGE, A SACRED TRUST

*“You must distinguish between the holy and the common, between the unclean and the clean“ –
Leviticus 10:10*

The institution of marriage is in jeopardy of being defiled by civil authorities in this nation in response to the push from radical homosexual activists. One might say, “What has this got to do with my marriage? I’ve got enough problems without worrying about homosexuals wanting to be married. That’s their business.”

Though I understand the sentiment, it is not one we can entertain as Christians. Marriage was entrusted to us by God. What we see going on in the nation concerning marriage should motivate us to double our efforts to get it right, first in our own marriage, then to take it to the streets to do what we can to impact our society, so that our children and theirs will not grow up in a modern day Sodom, but will grow up in the nation we have known as “One Nation Under God.” It’s bigger than us! When the Old Testament Prophet, Nehemiah supervised the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem, he encouraged the people to “Remember the Lord who is great and awesome and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.” (Nehemiah 4:14b) We can do no less. Let’s begin at home, then let’s do what we can as we pray and work to advance the Kingdom of God. He gave all he had for us. Let’s be prepared to give all we can for Him. Let’s get in the fight, beginning in our own homes and impacting the communities, and the nation God has entrusted to us.

Question For The Both of Us: Do you think I have taken our marriage seriously and how can we be effective in helping to preserve our marriage, and the institution of marriage in our nation.

Prayer For the Both of Us: Lord, help us to appreciate the sacred trust you have given us in marriage, first concerning our own marriage. Then help us make a difference in our community and even in the nation.
