

A Marriage Minute™

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

REDEEM THE TIMES!

“See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is.” Ephesians 5:15-17

It’s been said that there are just three kinds of people in the world: Those that make things happen, those that watch things happen, and those that just say “Wha’ happened?” With summer quickly coming to an end, we just may find that time is slipping away and we never got to do what we planned. Well, it’s not too late. Maybe you can’t change what you missed yesterday, but you can certainly begin making changes today. You can redeem the time, but it will take proactive measures on your part. It won’t happen by itself, and don’t wait for someone else to make it happen. Get a sense of what God’s will is for you, your marriage and your family and make it happen. Don’t buy into the excuses. There will always be reasons for something to not happen. Be an overcomer. Go with the reason for making it happen, and do it. Don’t be one of those who will look back on your life and say, “Wha’ happened?” Redeem the time; you can do it!

Question for The Both of Us: What did we plan on doing this summer that hasn’t happened yet?

Prayer For The Both of Us: Lord help us to know your will, and set out to make it happen as you empower us to do it.
