

A Marriage Minute™

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

THE POWER OF TWO

*"Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven."
--Matthew 18:19*

In the very beginning God said it's not good for man to be alone. Throughout the Bible we see a special power when two are united. Yet, if we had to describe the problems we see in our counseling office, in general, they all come down to feelings of "aloneness." Husbands and wives, though married in some cases for many years, feel very much alone. There is no oneness, no "we"-ness. It's all about me. Instead of being a team, husbands and wives have adopted a mentality of radical individualism, so it's no wonder they feel alone. Alone, God gave Adam the mission to tend a garden. Together, with Eve, he was commissioned to take dominion over all the earth. And so it is today. Alone, we can barely take care of ourselves. But two, working together in mutual agreement can do anything God has called them to do. We must purpose in our hearts to do nothing unless there is mutual agreement. Let your struggle be to find that mutual agreement before you move forward, and together, nothing will be impossible for you.

Question For The Both of Us: Do you feel "alone" in our marriage, or do you feel like we are really a team? Explain.

Prayer for both of us: Lord help us to give up our self-centered ways so that we will work to find unity and oneness to enable us to take dominion over all the powers that come against our marriage and our family.
