

A Marriage Minute™

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

DON'T ISOLATE

"A man who isolates himself seeks his own desire; He rages against all wise judgment." --Proverbs 18:1

It's interesting to see how two people who traveled with Jesus could mess up really bad. One hangs himself on a tree until his guts spill out, while the other one is used to start the Church.

I'm talking about Peter and Judas. They both betrayed Jesus. Judas gave information that led to his capture. When he realized what he had done he was sorry, so sorry, in fact, that he went off to a lonely place and hung himself. Peter denied Jesus three times; he even cursed Jesus just to convince people he wasn't one of his followers. What a wimp! Yet, Peter preached on the Day of Pentecost and 3,000 souls were saved and the Church was born. What was the difference? What brought such different outcomes?

Judas isolated himself, where the enemy could convince him of self-destructive lies, while Peter stayed with others to pursue Christ.

You see, isolation leads to no good end. When we isolate or "stonewall" to keep others out of our lives, we also remain trapped inside, where the enemy of our souls can have a field day in our minds. Things don't get better; they get worse. It's in the darkness of isolation that the root of bitterness, and self-destruction grows. Don't stonewall. Walk in the light. Be courageous; be there with others. Pursue Christ!

Question For The Both of Us: When do you feel I tend to isolate myself, or stonewall you just to shut you out for my own reasons? How does that make you feel?

Prayer for The Both Of Us: Lord, help us to resist isolating, stonewalling and keeping things to ourselves. Help us to walk in the light and to trust in God's grace as we pursue Christ with all that is within us.

*This Couples Devotional is brought to you by Marriage & Family Savers Institute.
Visit them at www.marriageandfamily.org*

A Marriage Minute™

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

DON'T ISOLATE

"A man who isolates himself seeks his own desire; He rages against all wise judgment." --Proverbs 18:1

It's interesting to see how two people who traveled with Jesus could mess up really bad. One hangs himself on a tree until his guts spill out, while the other one is used to start the Church.

I'm talking about Peter and Judas. They both betrayed Jesus. Judas gave information that led to his capture. When he realized what he had done he was sorry, so sorry, in fact, that he went off to a lonely place and hung himself. Peter denied Jesus three times; he even cursed Jesus just to convince people he wasn't one of his followers. What a wimp! Yet, Peter preached on the Day of Pentecost and 3,000 souls were saved and the Church was born. What was the difference? What brought such different outcomes?

Judas isolated himself, where the enemy could convince him of self-destructive lies, while Peter stayed with others to pursue Christ.

You see, isolation leads to no good end. When we isolate or "stonewall" to keep others out of our lives, we also remain trapped inside, where the enemy of our souls can have a field day in our minds. Things don't get better; they get worse. It's in the darkness of isolation that the root of bitterness, and self-destruction grows. Don't stonewall. Walk in the light. Be courageous; be there with others. Pursue Christ!

Question For The Both of Us: When do you feel I tend to isolate myself, or stonewall you just to shut you out for my own reasons? How does that make you feel?

Prayer for The Both Of Us: Lord, help us to resist isolating, stonewalling and keeping things to ourselves. Help us to walk in the light and to trust in God's grace as we pursue Christ with all that is within us.

*This Couples Devotional is brought to you by Marriage & Family Savers Institute.
Visit them at www.marriageandfamily.org*