

“Q TIP THERAPY”

“Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.”

-Psalm 119:165

Wouldn't you just love to be in that place where nothing will offend you, where no one can rock your boat. You can.

Quit Taking It Personally!

Call it Q-TIP Therapy. (Q.T.I.P.) In fact, carry one or two with you and when you hear your spouse getting offended don't say a word. Just hand them a Q-Tip, and laugh about it –Don't Fight!

If we're going to call ourselves Christians, we ought to be practicing the most fundamental element of our faith –self denial. What did Jesus say?

“If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.” –Luke 9:23

In other words, it's not about you, so quit taking it personally!

Have a Q-TIP!

Question For The Both of Us: Do you think I take things personally? Do you think I would be offended if you handed me a Q-Tip? Would you be offended if I handed you one?

Prayer For The Both of Us: Lord, help us to be true disciples of Christ by using Q-TIP Therapy that you might be glorified in our relationship.
