

A Marriage Minute

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

YOU ARE AN EXAMPLE

Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. –1 Corinthians 11:1

Your children will be like you. They are catching whatever it is that you have, and following your example, for better or for worse. The real question is which way are you leading your children? Are you leading them up, or are you leading them down? I remember attending a fellow minister's 70th birthday party during which time each of his children, now grown with families of their own, stood up and spoke of their Dad. The one thing that impressed me, and brought some conviction to my own heart, was how each one said that what they remembered most was how every morning, when they awoke, they would always find their Dad in his den with his Bible on his knees in prayer. What an example! Though prayer has always been a regular part of my life, I was not quite that public with it, or as regular. Though I prayed continually, my children didn't see it most of the time. Now I know I can't change the past, but I can ask God's forgiveness for my shortcomings as a Christian husband, and father, and purpose in my heart to set the example from this day forward to lead my family up, not down, so that they can fulfill their potential in Christ. His blessings are new every morning, and great is his faithfulness. We are an example; let's be the right example!

Prayer For The Both of Us: Lord, help us to follow Christ in word and in deed, so that our children will have the example they will need to succeed.

*This MARRIAGE MINUTE© is brought to you by Marriage & Family Savers Institute
Visit them at www.marriageandfamily.org.*

A Marriage Minute

A simple help to make your marriage just a little better this week.

YOU ARE AN EXAMPLE

Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. –1 Corinthians 11:1

Your children will be like you. They are catching whatever it is that you have, and following your example, for better or for worse. The real question is which way are you leading your children? Are you leading them up, or are you leading them down? I remember attending a fellow minister's 70th birthday party during which time each of his children, now grown with families of their own, stood up and spoke of their Dad. The one thing that impressed me, and brought some conviction to my own heart, was how each one said that what they remembered most was how every morning, when they awoke, they would always find their Dad in his den with his Bible on his knees in prayer. What an example! Though prayer has always been a regular part of my life, I was not quite that public with it, or as regular. Though I prayed continually, my children didn't see it most of the time. Now I know I can't change the past, but I can ask God's forgiveness for my shortcomings as a Christian husband, and father, and purpose in my heart to set the example from this day forward to lead my family up, not down, so that they can fulfill their potential in Christ. His blessings are new every morning, and great is his faithfulness. We are an example; let's be the right example!

Prayer For The Both of Us: Lord, help us to follow Christ in word and in deed, so that our children will have the example they will need to succeed.

*This MARRIAGE MINUTE© is brought to you by Marriage & Family Savers Institute.
Visit them at www.marriageandfamily.org.*